Waxes Elequent on the Strength and Weakness of Cleveland.

Dr. Chauncey M. Depew was just going to his breakfast this morning when an Evening Would reporter called on him to get his news in reference to Mr. Cleveland's nomination. Dr. Depew was not yet aware of the nemination, and when a copy of THE EVEN-186 WORLD'S Extra of this morning, giving the details, was handed to him, he gave expression to a "Well, well, well-that is news,

She produced the certificate of her husband's insanity signed by Drs. Matthew E. Field and Allan Firen. She then had him taken to the long Island Home. Brown says his wife wants to get rid of him and get his money.

Th. O. J. Wilsey, Superintendent of the Long Island Home, did not appear as respondent. He was represented by Dr. Bond, of that institution.

Judge Bartlett reserved decision.
